評価の観点および評価の方法	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We will have short listening and vocabulary tests each week. These will be counted as part of the class marks. End-of-term Test The end of term test will be a 30 minute written test, based on material from the text.
履修上の注意	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We will complete each unit in three weeks. Each week, we will have a listening test to improve students' listening ability. We will move quite quickly through each chapter, so studying before class is essential. Read through the conversations and think about the meaning. Look up any words you do not know and if there is anything you do not understand, underline it and ask the instructor in class. Make word cards and remember the meaning of each word and how to use them in a sentence. In the event when you are absent from class, make sure you find out from either your friend, or the instructor about what we did in class. Copy the notes and take any tests that were done in that class.

Outline

This subject focuses on the skill of speaking English. Although each unit in the text practices basic grammar points, the functions of that part of language will be the focus of classes. Students will have opportunities to use the grammar points practiced in class in role plays based on real-life situations.

Evaluation

End-of-term test 70%
Homework, class tests 30%

An evaluation of the subject and teachings will be done by the students during and at the end of the course.
